

I feel like a ghost--faker than most...

Do you remember who I am?
The world was much smaller then,
The tears in your eyes aren't pretend,
Have I been a fair-weather friend?

I feel like a ghost,
Faker than most,
I hope that you know,
It comes and it goes--I miss you so...

But you won't remember who I am,
You felt much stronger then,
Holes in your soul don't quite mend,
But the truth in your heart--you can bend

Now I don't remember who I am,
But I was much happier then,
Stars are my home--I pretend,
Nighttime's my fair-weather friend

I feel like a ghost,
Faker than most,
I hope that you'll know,
When it comes and it goes--I'll miss you so...

...You?

C6,
Is where we all go,
When hearts die,
Is when our love grows,
I want to go home,
I don't want to be alone

...Who?

The ghosts up above--they can howl all they want,
'Cause the heart that they lack is the heart that you've got,
They've been screeching for years just to make you believe,
But believing in fear is not believing in me

The gods up above--they can bitch all they want,
'Cause the love that they lack is the love that we've got,
They've been preaching for years just to make you believe,
But believing in ghosts--it won't save you from me

We're realer than those--
Love terrifies both--
I hope that you know--
I'm no fucking ghost--I love you so much.
